ZERO MAKEUP ARABIA: 24-Month Market-Share Growth Roadmap

Transitioning from a single Shopify point to a dominant multi-channel UAE player.

The UAE makeup market leaves its largest demographic unclaimed

Win the underserved South Asian + olive/brown-skin clean-beauty consumer — ~60% of the UAE population — by making ZERO available everywhere they shop, famous for two hero products, and habitual through loyalty.

Demand is not the bottleneck; physical availability is our only ceiling

We are moving from a baseline of $< 1\%$ today (~AED 3–5M run-rate) to an obtainable 3% SOM within 24 months.

A brand cannot capture demand it physically cannot reach.

Market share is an engineered equation that multiplies rather than adds

Distribution × Awareness × Conversion × Retention × Advocacy = Share

Because the drivers multiply rather than add, a weakness in any single one caps the whole.
A zero in any category limits the entire business.

Unlocking the regulatory gate drastically raises our share capacity

Until Dubai Municipality (Montaji) and federal MoIAT (ECAS) per-SKU registrations are complete, marketplaces and retailers are structurally blocked.

Target: Scale from 75 to 150 points of sale by Year 1 exit.

Fusing thirty-five years of artistry with decentralized social proof

Founder Authority

Weekly 60s Reels + monthly YouTube masterclasses anchoring Nabila as the South Asian makeup authority.

Creator Seeding

50+ Pakistani-Arab bilingual mid-tier creators (10k-500k followers) on affiliate commission to lower CAC.

Cultural Tentpoles

Ramadan & Eid limited-edition scarcity drops (mimicking the Charlotte Tilbury template) to capture the GCC's Q4-equivalent demand peak.

Target: 8% aided brand awareness by Year 1.

Killing the strikethrough discount establishes defensible prestige

	Old 'Regular' Price	New Standing Price
Face Palette	199	149
Liquid Foundation	145	129
Matte Lipstick	168	99

Regular prices invite losing comparisons; sale prices are the defensible positions. Exiting head-to-head MAC/Huda battles to match Hindash.

Concentrating investment behind two highly repeatable iconic pillars goes here.

Build top-of-mind recognition through iconic, repeatable stories rather than diffusing spend across 10 SKUs. Note the 'Blurring Pen' (AED 89) functions as the low-risk gateway trial SKU. Target site conversion: 2.5–3.5%.

Habitual retention is the true compounder of long-term market share

Foundation and palette are consumables (~60-90 day run-out).

Mechanics: Shopify-native 'Beauty Pass' loyalty, and the automated WhatsApp concierge (the highest LTV channel for the diaspora core).

Target: LTV:CAC $\geq$ 4:1 by Year 2 exit; Repeat-purchase rate of 40%.

Turning satisfied buyers into a self-funding acquisition engine

Turning customers into a distributed sales force via 50+ micro-creators on revenue-share.

Goal is to drop blended CAC by 20–30% over Year 1 as advocacy share rises, targeting 25% of DTC revenue from referrals/affiliates by Year 2.

A precise six-quarter sequence to capture the multi-channel prestige shelf

Capital allocation prioritizes highly efficient creator and tentpole channels

Spend logic reflects ZERO's lowest-CAC, highest-trust channels. Expected Year-1 ROI is a 3:1 revenue-to-spend ratio against the target AED 8–9M annualized exit rate.

Anticipating and neutralizing physical and digital operational friction

The immediate 90-day mandate to ignite the growth machine

- ☐ File Montaji & ECAS for all 10 SKUs (blocks all downstream channels).
- ☐ Enact standing-price reset and remove strikethroughs.
- ☐ Concentrate paid/creator media exclusively on Palette and Foundation.
- ☐ Launch WhatsApp concierge and native loyalty program.
- ☐ Sign and onboard 50 affiliate creators on revenue-share.

The intersection of clean, halal, warm-climate performance for South Asian skin is unclaimed. Capturing it is the whole game.
